News Release

August 9th, 2011

On August 7, 2011 at approximately 11:05 p.m., the Adams County Sheriff's Department dispatch center received a call from a citizen who lives in the 700 block of Czech Ct. in the Township of Preston, reporting that he had observed an unidentified subject in his yard who he believed was attempting to remove items from their property.

He further reported that when he went outside to confront this subject, a short foot chase ensued. The fleeing subject fired one round from an unknown weapon in the direction of the victim. The victim took cover and then returned to his residence to contact the authorities. The victim did not sustain any injuries.

Law enforcement responded and set up a perimeter. The area was searched by a K-9 unit however the suspect was not located. The suspect is described as a male wearing a blue jeans and a black hooded sweatshirt. No vehicle was observed in the area.

This incident appears to be isolated as the Sheriff's Department has not received any other complaints of this nature.

The Adams County Sheriff's Department was assisted by Waushara County Sheriff's Department, City of Adams Police Department, and the Town of Rome Police Department.

Anyone with information related to this incident is asked to call the Adams County Sheriff's Department at 608-339-3304. This case remains under investigation.
